

MAYFACS

The Mayfield & Five Ashes Community Services has these objectives:

"To promote community, based services and support for people living in the parish of Mayfield and Five Ashes and its surrounding area, to assist in combating loneliness and isolation and to promote general health improvements and sustain quality of life."

It is hoping to achieve this mostly through the goodwill of our own community, but there are some inevitable everyday costs. Some of these will be covered by grants, charges made for activities and general fundraising, but not all.

Some activities we already have in place are:

- Fortnightly coffee & chat in Five Ashes
- Lunch Club in Five Ashes
- A good neighbouring scheme
- Computer buddies
- Monthly minibus outings

We hope MAYFACS will become an umbrella for other organisations in our parish, helping them in a variety of ways, such as administration and marketing. We have already started this with

- The Tuesday Afternoon Club
- Monthly lunches in the Middle House
- Assisting "Community Cars"

We have already achieved a lot, but we would like to do more. We are exploring the ideas of a "Man Shed" and matinee film afternoons.

To achieve all our ambitions, we need the support of as many people as possible either with practical help and/or financial assistance so we have introduced the "Friends of MAYFACS" for those who would like to support us financially. After all that is what MAYFACS is all about – friendship & companionship.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Become a friend by:
